Hudson's Bay Company

- The Hudson's Bay Company was started by French explorers Pierre-Esprit Radisson and Sieur de Grosevelles for England. They learned from First Nations of a great fur country northwest of Lake Superior that might be reached by the Hudson Bay. It went into business on 2 May 1670, as the Governor and Company of Adventurers of England Trading into Hudson's Bay. Under that charter the company still operates, making it one of the oldest commercial corporations.
